The Blacksmith Clock's Bell, Abinger Hammer £3,300 Hazel Waston	The bell will be removed from the clock, taken by Smith of Derby to be repaired (welded) and then returned to its position. Scaffolding and traffic control will be necessary for the removal and replacement. The bell is cracked and cannot strike the hours, as it might cause it to break up and fall onto the road below. The clock has told the hour in Abinger Hammer since 1908 and the strike of this famous landmark is very much missed.	None	Smith of Derby who built and maintain the clock and bell, examined the bell in 2005 and declared it to be unsafe. They then contacted the bell founders who confirmed that the bell was reparable.
Bookham Christmas Lights £3,500 Jim Smith	A maximum of ten lighting pillars in the village centre will be fitted with exterior power sockets and each will carry a Christmas Lighting Array. Provide Christmas Festive Displays in the village centre throughout December. Without the displays there would only be the individual shop displays	None	Specialist lighting contractor for outdoor lighting to outline costs. EDF and electrical contactor for technical advice. Surrey County Council Highways for permission to proceed.
Ashtead Cricket Club £5,000 Tim Ashton	Funding toward a new cricket pavilion. Replace the old pavilion that is now inadequate.	None	Full planning permission applied for and granted. Resident Association and local residents.
