Until 31 January 2005, Surrey residents and community groups can participate in a consultation on the 'Issues and Options' that will impact on the new Waste Development Framework for the county (formerly known as Surrey's Waste Local Plan). The Waste Framework consists of 4 issues papers which discuss various aspects of the Waste Local Development Framework that will replace the current Surrey waste Local Plan. The issue papers are:

- waste minimisation, re-use and recycling and market development
- The proximity principle and development control
- Landfill
- Identification of sites appropriate for the development of waste related activities

To find out more and to have your say, visit www.surreycc.gov.uk/wasteplan or call 08456 009009 for general enquiries.

Copies of the Waste Framework will also be available at the Local Committee Meeting, and at local libraries and the borough offices.
