1. Management Summary

The Library Service is currently undertaking a fundamental staffing & structural review. There have been many factors that have converged to provide this timely opportunity: –

- trends in use – decline of visitor numbers and changes in patterns of visits
- introduction of self-service technology
- increased automation for users – more information available on-line
- Successful transfer of calls to Contact Centre
- User and non-user feedback re opening hours

Due to the scope of the review we are taking a phased approach

Phase 1 has focused on the frontline service, and provides options for

1. Structuring the library network – grouping libraries of similar size and scope
2. Standardising and improving opening hours and deployment of frontline staff
3. Developing a consistent service offer across and within the Groups

The brief of the project team was to work within existing staff resources to achieve the most effective outcome. Standardised opening hours could be achieved, with some libraries gaining from increased hours to match the libraries in their Group, but also a reduction in late night opening, reflecting the progressive fall-off in visitor numbers in libraries between 5pm and 8pm.

However, with effectively planning for the use of the £250k additional revenue allocated by the Leader of the Council in the 07/08 budget, it will be possible to enhance opening hours. (See Section 4)

This will include

- additional hours at the new Walton library development.
- Designation of the Surrey History Centre as an additional library - providing improved customer service and a welcome boost to our CPA Performance Indicator scores for opening hours & visitor numbers. Surrey History Centre will have a lending collection pertaining to its subject areas.
- A pilot of Sunday opening for Walton new Library.

If agreed these proposals will achieve the following benefits:

- a) Subject to validation and costing, 12% increase in opening hours across 24 libraries
- b) Improved access to the service

- c) Exploit the benefits of self-service technology to achieve more effective use of staff by releasing staff from routine duties to help readers more and give better customer care
- d) create the potential for reaching a new and wider membership including younger people
- e) fulfil the public's expectations of larger service points
- f) provide a clearer definition of the core Service offer which will help marketing
- g) focus service delivery on performance measures
- h) improve geographic spread of Service Offer activities
- i) provide for improved staff deployment via development of model timetables

The Review has demonstrated that genuine efficiency gains result from enhanced automation and the introduction of self-service technology for library users. The benefit for library users is a measurable improvement in hours of access in Surrey County Council libraries. This research exercise has enabled the service to plan opening hours that are consistent and easy to understand, and that meet the preference of current and potential users.

These proposals will have a positive effect on Library opening hours in each Borough/District. This report itemises in Section 7 the changes for Surrey Heath, which are summarised below:

Camberley Library: designated as a Group A 'Town' library, will gain 5 hours per week. The library will open at 9am every day, closing at 6pm on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 7pm on Tuesday and Thursday, and 5pm on Saturday.

Bagshot Library: the hours of opening will remain unchanged.

Frimley Green Library: will gain 4 hours per week. The library will open at lunchtime on Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Lightwater Library: will gain 1 hour per week. The library will open at lunchtime on Friday.

Overall, libraries in Surrey Heath gain 10 hours per week.

2. Background to the Libraries Staffing Review project

A project team of library practitioners has been seconded for one day per week since December 2006 to work on Phase 1 of a comprehensive review of Libraries. The project has started with a review of frontline service delivery, and has worked on proposals for

- Structuring the Library Network (grouping libraries together by size and scope)
- Improving opening hours
- Defining a core Service Offer to be delivered in all libraries.

Factors driving this review are:

- Falling book issues / visitor numbers over the past 10 yrs
- Introduction of self service technology / added value from IT contract extension (14 libraries in current phase)
- Transfer of library phone calls to the Contact Centre
- Introduction of other automation for users: online catalogue checking and reserving books; online booking of public terminals
- Feedback on users' needs and expectations: longer (in some cases), more convenient and more easily understood/ consistent opening hour patterns.
- Surveys in 2005 recorded opening hours as the aspect of the service with which users were least satisfied.
- The Lapsed User survey recorded Opening Hours as a major factor in ceasing use of libraries.

The Project team collected a considerable body of evidence of use levels and staff activity. Its recommendations are firmly rooted in the data collected from all Library Managers and from the Library Service Development Teams.

The team presented a report to the Libraries Management Group on 17th April 2007, with options and recommendations on the Phase 1 priorities of Library Network, Opening Hours Staffing Levels, and the core Service Offer. Their recommendations were presented to & supported by Safer & Stronger select committee 23rd May 2007.

Impact of Self-Service

Whilst self-service technology had been tested in Ash and Godalming Libraries, Redhill Library was the first to offer full circulation. Lessons learned from these pilots informed later planning for Ashford Library's self service implementation in March 2006.

The current planned programme includes:

Horley	March
Knaphill	March
Staines	March
Godalming	April
Ewell	May
Oxted	June
Dorking	July

Guildford	September
Banstead	October
Farnham	November

2007/8

Weybridge	tba
Woking	tba
Epsom	tba
Camberley	tba

It is too soon to see the benefits from Horley, Knaphill and Staines as it takes a while for the usage to settle down, especially following a closure. Surrey Libraries are unique in that although a lot of other authorities are turning to self-service, they are offering self-service issue or return only. Surrey is offering both, which makes it unique and a forerunner.

A summary of the dividends of self-service by the Library Manager of Ashford Library highlights the benefits both for the user and the staff (see Appendix 1). Currently 95% of Ashford's circulation is by self-service.

Extra hours were achieved At Redhill and Ashford. Redhill Library opened an extra six hours per week. Similarly, Ashford, in anticipation of self-service, increased their opening times by four hours per week.

Results of Phase 1 – options and recommendations

3. Grouping Libraries

Overall, the proposal is to simplify the current structure of 5 Library Bands into 3 Library Groups.

Officer recommendation: a Strategic approach to Grouping Libraries: Strategic / geographic grouping by ‘Town Centre’, ‘District Centre’ and ‘Local Centre’ designation, in line with the sustainable development plan framework for Surrey.

Groupings

	Bagshot	NW	Surrey Heath	5	17,065
	Lingfield	E	Tandridge	5	16,337
	Stanwell	NW	Spelthorne	5	13,442

Advantages of this approach:

- It is affordable, and yields a group of 10 Group A libraries with extended opening hours and a full range of services, instead of the current 5 (6 including Walton new library). Just under half of Surrey's libraries would have standard, consistent, easy to understand opening hours, in many cases longer than the present hours.
- It is better attuned to modern lifestyles, with library opening hours more in harmony with retail and business hours.
- It provides long-term stability, and a logical basis for developing a property strategy relevant to Surrey's strategic planning framework.
- The designation of the three Groups as 'Town', 'District' and 'Local' libraries is a 'working title', and not ideal. Members' views are welcomed on suitable names for the three Groups.

4. Opening Hours

The Review project concentrated on optimising opening hours in Group A and Group B libraries. This creates a larger group of almost half the libraries in Surrey offering consistent, standard opening hours. These opening hours are designed to be easier to understand, and to offer improved access. Some, but not all libraries will see their opening hours extended. Subject to validation, the gain in opening hours could be at least 128 additional opening hours per week across Surrey County Council.

The principles behind the opening hours options are

- Standardisation of opening hours in Groups A (town) and B (district) to meet users' expectations of consistency, long days, and some synergy with retail and commercial opening hours.
- Recommendations are based on the premise that hours will change in Groups A and B to achieve standardisation.
- Locally determined opening hours in Group C (local centres), to maximise use of & respond to the unique local mix of services and activities.
- The current mix of locally determined hours in Group C has not been reviewed in detail at this stage.
- On the recommendation of the Safer and Stronger Communities Select Committee on 23rd May 2007, 7pm will become the standard for late night closure in all libraries, which will have an impact on some libraries in Group C. The Project Review Team proposes balancing improvements to daytime opening, including opening libraries at lunchtime where they currently close. Each library that loses an hour by closing at 7pm instead of 8pm will gain at least the same, and in some cases more, daytime opening at popular times

Officer recommendation (1): standardised hours in Groups A and B with late night opening to 7pm.

Improvements:

- 9am opening in all 24 libraries
- Saturdays open until 5pm in all 24 libraries
- Wednesday afternoon opening in all 24 libraries
- 10 libraries open 6 days per week instead of the current 5
- Consistent pattern of hours that can be easily promoted by the service and understood by the public

	Group A 'Town centre' (10)		Group B 'District centre' (14)
Monday	9.00am	6.00pm	Closed
Tuesday	9.00am	7.00pm	9.00am	7.00pm
Wednesday	9.00am	6.00pm	9.00am	5.00pm
Thursday	9.00am	7.00pm	9.00am	5.00pm
Friday	9.00am	6.00pm	9.00am	5.00pm
Saturday	9.00am	5.00pm	9.00am	5.00pm

Officer recommendation (2): Interim alterations to Group C Library opening hours:

- Alter 8pm to 7pm as the standard for late night opening, where relevant
- Seek to open libraries at lunchtime where they currently close.

5. Development Activities in Libraries & the Service Offer

The project report recommends a core service offer, scaled to each library Group. Currently there are variations in emphasis in the service offer with a focus on some but not always all activities. It will cover:

- resources; library stocks - physical and on-line
- activities for children and young people;
- learning;
- reading development;
- information provision.

It will be designed to deliver the priorities of the CC / Service Plan. It will standardise / define the core functions you can expect from a Surrey Library but it will not inhibit innovation & will still encourage added value activities. (This work links with a project also underway within the Library & Culture Service looking at the 'use of volunteers')

The Basic Service Offer in all Libraries

Current provision is listed here, and this will remain in place:

Access to stock for loan and reference:

- Books and audio-visual material in all media for all ages
- Books in 40+ languages
- Special collections e.g. reminiscence, official publications, local and family history
- Newspapers
- Reading Group sets
- Quick Choice/Express areas (all refurbished)
- Request Service
- Self Service (2007/08)

Access to information:

- County and District/Borough information
- Leaflets and posters
- Prospectuses
- Enquiries Direct via email, phone, library

Access to online resources of information:

- 500+ Public Network Terminals
- 11 subscription websites at library
- 9 subscription websites remotely
- Libraries webpage including Information, Kidstuff, Learning, Support for Reading

Access to internet computer terminals with MS Office software and print/scan facilities:

- Bookable
- Quick Use (some libraries)

Access for special needs users:

- Assistive computer technology (15 libraries)
- 'Books on Wheels' housebound service
- Hearing Loops
- Widgit 'Writing with Symbols 2000' software (5 libraries)

Access to services:

- Fax service
- Self service photocopying

Charged IT events only at libraries with bank of 8-10 workstations to recoup tutor fees

Elements of the service offer currently being researched:

a) A revised stock offer based on our new 3 banding groups; this is an essential component.

b) Infrequent/limited activities hosted by libraries:

Examples of these activities include:

BBC RaW (Read more write better) storytelling workshops

Bookstart events

Family/Local History talks and events

c) Activities in development and their potential for integration into the offer

Books on Prescription offered in partnership with Surrey PCT (Primary Health Care Trust)

Beating the Blues CBT (Cognitive Behavioural Therapy) program offered in partnership with Surrey PCT

Looked after children initiatives

d) Provision of local history centres in libraries run by volunteers and supported by staff in libraries. Currently there is not an even geographic spread. Located as follows:

Group A

Redhill

Group B

Banstead

Caterham Valley

Cranleigh

Ewell

Horley

Group C

Lingfield

e) Ad hoc activities facilitated by Friends Groups where they exist

Proposed Offer of Activities:

The benefits of the proposed offer of activities aligned to the three Groups of libraries are outlined below:

a) Explicitly states the service that a user can expect - who does what, where. This in turn is more easily branded and marketed.

b) Ensures limited resources are being used more effectively and not spread too thin.

- c) Facilitate easier planning, target setting and focus delivery against BVPIs, CPA PIs and National Standards and Impact Measures.
- d) Performance monitoring is improved where a standard menu of activities provides for a degree of consistency and comparability across libraries operating at a similar level.
- e) The Self service dividend is extended hours and release of staff time to support and deliver the service offer.
- f) Improved geographic spread of service activities providing ease of access for users and cross-marketing opportunities where staff confidently refer to other libraries – ‘we don’t offer but this library nearby does’.

6. Next steps:

Phase 1:

- Member agreement of options and detail of Phase 1 model of library network, opening hours and service offer
- Detailed validation and costing of agreed model
- Begin internal processes to implement recommendations – detailed discussions with HR.

Phase 2 of the Review consists of:

- Review the deployment of qualified and specialist library staff to support the delivery of the service offer
- Develop the management structure required for the re-designed Libraries service.

A comprehensive research exercise for Phase 2 has already started.

7. Officer Recommendations:

The Committee is asked to:

1. Support the approach of seeking improvements to opening hours and services through efficiency gains from Self-service new technology:
2. Support the proposed new Group structure – three Groups of libraries, A (‘Town’ centre), B (‘District’ Centre) and C (‘Local’ Centre), with a geographic / strategic approach
3. Support the resulting improvements in opening hours in Libraries in Surrey Heath detailed below:

The Benefits of Self Service

For readers

Faster service - readers seldom have to queue to borrow or return their books – self-service is very user-friendly and quick. Readers in a hurry who just want to return and/or borrow, never have to wait behind a reader wanting to reserve a book/ talk about the book they have just borrowed/ query their fines/ book on a computer/ change their address (and that of their four children).....etc.

Enquirers and new borrowers are seen much more quickly, as all issue/return takes place through self-service.

Better experience for new members - staff have more time to spend with a new user, and can explain all the many services we offer, and make the new member feel more valued.

More privacy for borrowers- borrowers may be embarrassed to be taking books on sensitive topics e.g. divorce, bankruptcy, mental or physical ailments or even light romances – no staff to notice or judge.

Old-style counters act as a barrier. With self-service, staff members are more evident in the body of the library, this promotes a more relaxed feel to the library, and staff appear more approachable. Readers feel more comfortable approaching a member of staff on the floor with minor enquiries – where are the books on?/ where will I find Joanna Trollope?/can you show me how to...minor enquiries that would not have warranted queuing-up for.

Staff have more time to help with enquirers, and can give more time without the competing demands of issuing and returning books. Enquiries can be handled with more privacy, as most readers use self service terminals rather than the counter.

Readers can at any time check the books they have on loan, and/or renew their loans without the need to queue at the counter. They are given a printed list of all their loans with the due dates to take home.

Readers are given a receipt for all returns and a printed list of everything they borrow, making it easy to keep track of their families loans.

Children love to borrow and return their own books. Self-service lets them feel involved in the whole library experience. Parents are proud to see their children using self-service.

For staff

Much more engagement with library users. As they spend less time behind counters scanning and stamping books, they are free to help readers with all levels of enquiries. Staff can be more proactive in approaching readers.

Greater opportunities for reader development.
Staff have more opportunities to work on projects or undertake stock work.

Staff find their new roles more satisfying, as they are better able to help their readers/enquirers.

With a more flexible way of working, there becomes more variety in their working day, and they are able to react to changing service demands throughout the day.

Counter staff feel less pressured. As much of the routine issue/discharge is taken off the counter, the queues become much shorter and more manageable.

Benefits for the service

Libraries are seen to be moving with the times, more modern, less formal, barriers removed. Libraries appeal to wider audience than previously.

Consumer satisfaction (evidenced in PLUS surveys) decreased waiting times, increased perception of staff helpfulness & knowledge.

Service can remain open in emergency with lower levels of staffing than required on conventional counter service.

Possibility of increasing opening hours.

Appendix 3: Summary of Visitor Counts in 15 sample libraries between 5pm and 8pm.

An hourly record of visitor numbers was conducted in 16 libraries during January 2007, as part of the data gathering exercise for the Libraries Staffing Review. 15 of these libraries opened until 8pm on at least one evening per week.

A full report is available to members.

Only one library of the 15 included in the sample visitor count recorded its busiest evening hour between 7 and 8pm.
