Question to Children, Families, Lifelong Learning and Culture Select Committee – 1 June 2022

1. What incidents result in heightened monitoring, for example: excess number of physical interventions, police involvement, incidents of physical harming, periods of absence. What differentiates heightened monitoring from normal monitoring?
2. What is the process for raising and dealing with safeguarding issues in respect of Surrey-run children's homes by Surrey County Council?
3. How are councillors on the CFLLC Select Committee and the Corporate Parenting Board made aware of safeguarding issues in respect of Surrey-run children's homes raised with external bodies, i.e., outside Surrey County Council?
4. How are the CFLLC Select Committee and the Corporate Parenting Board made aware of serious incidents in children's homes in which Surrey children are placed and why is the Select Committee and the Corporate Parenting Board not made aware of all OFSTED inspections when SCC is notified of the inspection?
