c Petitions

Notice of petition

Received from Ms Natasha Forrest-Dunn, 217 signatures.

For years, residents of Capel have been demanding installation of street lights in their locality but the local authority hasn't taken any steps to ensure street lights in the area. Roads are dark and lack visibility post-sunset, especially when it's raining and during winters. Street lights are important to reduce crime and ensure our safety and security, especially women and children. Due to the spate of crime in the area recently, residents are tired of trying to reach out to local authorities, who take no action to ensure our safety.

A response will be tabled at the meeting.

Joanna Killian
Chief Executive
