

2130

Households currently reported to have been affected by internal flooding

Source: District & Boroughs

This data shows the number of households having been reported as affected by internal flooding to their property, as reported by District and Borough Councils. This figure may increase if more households report flooding.

Households currently reported to have been affected by internal flooding

This page is intentionally left blank