Item / paper title: Improving Children's Health and Wellbeing – six monthly priority status update

Purpose of item / paper	1. To update the Health and Wellbeing Board of progress against the children's priority of the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy, 'improving children's health and wellbeing'. This update is six monthly with the last update in September 2015. 2. To note the development of the new Children and Young People's Partnership arrangements.
Surrey Health and Wellbeing priority(ies) supported by this item / paper	Surrey's Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy (JHWS) commits to five priorities: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Improving children's health and wellbeing</li> <li>2. Developing a preventative approach</li> <li>3. Promoting emotional wellbeing and mental health</li> <li>4. Improving older adults' health and wellbeing</li> <li>5. Safeguarding the population</li> </ol> This status update sets out how the priority for improving children's health and wellbeing is being delivered, including revised partnership arrangements. It is updating the Board on the six priorities identified by the Surrey Children and Young People's Partnership (as set out in the Surrey Children and Young People's Partnership Action Plan 2015/16). The revised arrangements will see new Children and Young People's Partnership arrangements be responsible for developing ambitions for children and young people in Surrey and delivering priority areas for 2016/17 that are appropriately aligned to Surrey's Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy.

How does the report contribute to the Health and Wellbeing Board's strategic priorities in the following areas?	1. Centred on the person, their families and carers The partnership arrangements are being revised to ensure they can continue to effectively take a holistic and person centred approach to improving outcomes. The priority status update report highlights a range of activity and next steps that place children, young people and families at the heart of the work we do. 2. Early intervention The revised arrangements will allow for further exploration of how we can work better together to deliver early intervention and prevention for our children, young people and families. The priority status update report highlights that a key next step is to continue developing in partnership Early Help in Surrey. 3. Opportunities for integration The revised arrangements will allow for further exploration of opportunities for joint commissioning and integration to continue improving the outcomes of children, young people and families. The priority status update report highlights a range of activity and next steps where joint commissioning is and will be at the heart of improving outcomes. 4. Reducing health inequalities The revised arrangements will allow all partners to continue focussing on those children, young people and families with the greatest need. The priority status update report highlights a range of activity and next steps aimed at improving the outcomes of all children, young people and families. 5. Evidence based This report has been produced following best practice research and the partnership arrangements will continue to ensure that an evidence based approach is taken to commissioning. The priority setting and status update have been informed by extensive public consultation on the Health and Wellbeing Strategy and needs analysis including service user experiences. 6. Improved outcomes The revised arrangements support more streamlined structures, which will provide a greater focus on delivering improved
