

Annex G – Photos provided by residents of Celia Crescent

The photos below were provided by residents of Celia Crescent with the following comment:

The CCTV images clearly show that the narrow section of Celia Crescent that links to Kingston Road is in constant use by vehicles of all types including HGV's and the drivers of these vehicles continuously drive into and out of this junction as though it were a one way section of road with no regard for other road users.

This page is intentionally left blank