

SURREY POLICE AND CRIME PANEL

Induction Programme November 2012

Members of the Police and Crime Panel will be invited to attend two induction events in November 2012, designed to prepare the Panel for its work with the incoming Police and Crime Commissioner.

The first will be hosted by officers of the Surrey Police Authority (SPA), who will become the secretariat of the Police and Crime Commissioner from 22 November, and the second, arranged by Surrey County Council officers, will provide the opportunity for Panel Members to explore matters relating to their roles and responsibilities.

The following are indicative agendas for the two events that will remain flexible in order to allow for any developments in October and November.
