

Deputy Police & Crime Commissioner Objectives for 2013/14 and Progress as at August 2013

The PCC will hold regular meetings with the Deputy PCC, as well as an annual review, the outcomes of which will be shared with the Panel. The following strategic objectives have been set for the Deputy PCC for the year 2013/14.

Objective	Key actions	Progress as at August 2013	Outcomes
To support the PCC in delivering an efficient and effective police service for Surrey, obtaining best value for money and holding the Chief Constable to account for delivery of the Police & Crime Plan within the budget set for Surrey Police	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Keeping key Force change programmes (e.g. estates) under review</li> </ul>	The DPCC has taken a lead for the PCC on a number of key change programmes. This includes a review of the Salfords custody programme, involvement in the Force estates strategy, the Siren ICT project, the collaboration programme with Sussex and other regional forces and internal reviews by Surrey Police such as the review of its Professional Standards function and of its Special Constabulary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>DPCC has commissioned Jacobs to undertake professional estates review. Report due in September 2013 which will allow a decision on the way forward for remaining properties.</li> <li>Siren project concluded and being reviewed by Grant Thornton. Niche project now underway.</li> <li>DPCC working with Sussex counterpart on PCC input into collaboration plans. Detailed plans expected at next Collaboration Oversight Board meeting in September</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Attending regular management meetings with the Chief Constable to assess performance and budgetary information</li> </ul>	The DPCC has attended webcast management meeting and contributed to discussions regarding Force progress against the priorities and budget	Outcomes of discussions can be viewed on the PCC's website. The meetings have allowed open and transparent scrutiny of performance against the People's Priorities: http://www.surrey-pcc.gov.uk/our-work/surrey-police-performance/webcasting/
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Ensuring the PCC is aware of the views of the public, partners, businesses and victims of crime</li> </ul>	The DPCC has attended each of the PCC's four public consultation events and will attend the Crime Summits to be held in every borough and district. The DPCC has	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>DPCC is currently working with a number of partners to run a series of 'Senior Citizens' Events, improve</li> </ul>

	when discharging his key functions	also held numerous meetings with representative groups as diverse as the British Bankers Association, the Association of Parish Councils and Victims Support	the County wide running of 'Junior Citizens' events and improve the effectiveness, etc, of NeighbourhoodWatch.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cooperating with the Police &amp; Crime Panel in its overview and scrutiny role</li> </ul>	Attendance at every meeting of the Police & Crime Panel.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Acting at all times with integrity and the highest ethical standards, abiding by the Code of Conduct for the PCC and DPCC</li> </ul>	The DPCC continues to abide by the Code of Conduct and has ensured that information about his role and expenses has been published as required
To develop strong working relationships with relevant partners to facilitate the delivery of the Police & Crime Plan and, in particular, ensure the PCC is able to fulfil his remit in respect of community safety and criminal justice activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Represent the PCC or attend in his absence at partnership meetings, e.g. Surrey Leaders, Community &amp; Public Safety Board etc</li> </ul>	The DPCC has represented the PCC at key meetings such as the Community & Public Safety Board and the Criminal Justice Partnership to ensure partners are sighted on the PCC's plans. He is also working with a colleague from the Prison Service and the Local Government Association to undertake a review of the partnership governance structures in Surrey	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>DPCC initiated review of the broader partnership (CPSB) landscape in Surrey which has been undertaken by the Local Government Association and received good support from a range of partners. Report due to be finalised soon and DPCC will then work with others to implement recommendations</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Work with the PCC to set up Local Policing Boards/Summits in each borough and district</li> </ul>	Policing summits are progressing well with the first two (Reigate & Banstead and Elmbridge) scheduled for June. Discussions continue with Surrey Police colleagues to establish Local Policing Boards and the DPCC will be attending a meeting of senior leaders from the Neighbourhood Policing Command to discuss this next month. The DPCC is also meeting with every Neighbourhood Inspector	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Around 200 people attended the first two Crime Summits and were able to have their say on local issues.</li> <li>Surrey Police has established Local Policing Boards for every borough and district.</li> <li>DPCC continues to meet diverse community groups across the County to engage and communicate Policing Plan, etc.</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Build links with Local Criminal Justice Board colleagues</li> </ul>	The DPCC will be attending future meetings of the Criminal justice Partnership and has met with colleagues from the CPS, Prisons,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>DPCC has attended Criminal Justice Board meetings and has taken a particular interest in the debate</li> </ul>

		the Court Service and Probation	around Restorative Justice, setting out the impact of proposals for Surrey Police
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Ensure that the PCC is fully prepared to commission services, particularly services for victims for 2014</li> </ul>	This is an on-going piece of work. The DPCC is leading on the award of grants and has ensured that a number of grants were made at the end of this financial year using an underspend identified in the budget of the OPCC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A full list of the diverse projects supported by grants awarded by the DPCC has been published on the PCC's website. An example being a Social Media Course for 63,000 students across Surrey: http://www.surrey-pcc.gov.uk/wp-content/uploads/2013/04/Grant-Funding-Bids-for-Website.pdf</li> </ul>
Work with the PCC to ensure Surrey's voice is represented at a national level	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Work with PCC staff colleagues to feed into the Government's review of the police funding formula</li> </ul>	An independent academic organisation has been commissioned to review the funding formula on behalf of Surrey (and hopefully other forces in the region) which will feed into the Government's review.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The work by Oxford Economics is ongoing.</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Seek opportunities to lobby on key issues with partners, e.g. local authority leaders</li> </ul>	The DPCC will continue to seek opportunities with partners and has also forged links with private and voluntary sector organisations where appropriate	DPCC has discussed opportunities to work with National Crime agency/National Cyber Crime Unit, BBA and others to reduce the threat to Surrey from Cyber Crime. Ongoing.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Attend meetings of the Association of Police &amp; Crime Commissioners</li> </ul>	The DPCC has attended a number of APCC meetings, including specific briefings on issues such as mental health

This page is intentionally left blank